

Frequently Asked Questions about Fees at Apostle Islands National Lakeshore

Is there an entrance fee?

No. Apostle Islands National Lakeshore does not charge an entrance fee, but does have Expanded Amenity Fees. Those fees apply to overnight docking, parking at Meyers Road, lighthouse tours at Raspberry Island, and camping.

Is my Interagency Pass good at Apostle Islands National Lakeshore?

Since there is no entrance fee, the Interagency Pass is not useable at this park.

How do I pay for overnight docking?

There is a fee payment station at most of the docks in the park. Fill out a fee envelope, according to the instructions on the envelope. Place payment inside the envelope, or write your credit card number on the envelope where indicated. Write date on the removable receipt, and place the receipt in a boat window, where visible. Place envelope in fee safe slot.

How do I pay for parking at Meyers Road?

There is a fee payment station at Meyers Road parking lot. Fill out a fee envelope, according to the instructions on the envelope. Place payment inside envelope, or write credit card number on envelope where indicated. Write date on the removable receipt and place it on dashboard, on driver's side, so that it can be easily seen and read. Place envelope in fee safe slot.

What do I do if I'm at the fee station and don't have any money (or correct change)?

Payment can be made with a credit card by writing the card number and expiration date on the envelope. Payment can also be made at a later time in person at the park's Bayfield visitor center or by mailing the envelope to: Apostle Islands NL, 415 Washington Avenue, Bayfield, WI, 54814.

Does my Senior Pass (or Golden Age Pass) cover fees?

The Senior Pass provides free access to recreation areas managed by five Federal agencies, including the National Park Service. Since Apostle Islands National Lakeshore does not charge an entrance fee, the Senior Pass is not used for that purpose here. The Senior Pass does provide the pass owner a 50% discount on Expanded Amenity Fees which include camping, Raspberry Island lighthouse tours, Meyers Road parking and overnight docking. In these cases, only the pass holder receives the benefit.

Is my State Park sticker or my U.S. Forest Service sticker good at Apostle Islands National Lakeshore?

No. Apostle Islands National Lakeshore is a unit of the National Park System, and is not a state park nor a national forest.
